1. Member J. Sikora spoke with Thomas Robel, 622-8673, of Porter Avenue concerning children playing in the area. Mr. Robel was informed Children at play signs are for playground areas due to all streets in the City having children on them. Mr. Robel will contact the Committee if any additional problems arise.
2. Rosemary Grisote, 1408 Nash Rd., 380-8502, had a concern with children crossing the intersection of Nash Road and Deerfield Drive. She was informed the intersection will have a pedestrian push button installed to assist children crossing the intersection.
3. Also discussed at the meeting was a potential parking problem with boat trailers and lacrosse games during the Wednesday night car shows at Gratwick Park. The problem was discussed with Robert Welch who was going to contact Parks and Recreation to check on field use as well as car show staff to keep vehicles without trailers from using the boat trailer parking only spots.
