Mayor Arthur G. Pappas and Police Chief Hall Showcase New Auxiliary Police Cars

NORTH TONAWANDA—City of North Tonawanda Mayor Arthur G. Pappas, along with North Tonawanda Police Chief William R. Hall and members of the City's Common Council, gathered recently to showcase new additions to the North Tonawanda Auxiliary Police.

The Mayor and Common Council budgeted a total of $75,000 for the three 2016 Chevrolet Impalas. "I am very happy to announce the addition of these vehicles to the Auxiliary Police. The City appreciates our volunteers who take the time out of their day to assist our police in times of additional need," said Mayor Pappas.

Duties of the Auxiliary police include weekend road patrols, parades, and festivals which require additional coverage. The full volunteer organization, totaling eighteen in number, is composed of men and women attaining 8,000 hours of community service last year.
