Mayor Pappas Selects New Administrative Assistant

NORTH TONAWANDA—City of North Tonawanda Mayor Arthur G. Pappas has announced his selection for the position of Administrative Assistant. Peter Drossos has been selected to fill the position that is being vacated by Robert W. Welch, who has served in the position since January 2010. Mr. Welch will be working in the Lockport, NY District Office of New York State Senator Robert G. Ort.

Mayor Pappas selected Mr. Drossos from over thirty applicants, of which six candidates were interviewed for the open position. Mr. Drossos has a B.A. from the University of Missouri – Kansas City, and has recent work experience in the pharmaceutical and insurance industries. Mr. Drossos grew up on Grand Island, NY, and currently lives in the Town of Tonawanda. Mr. Drossos is in the process of relocating to the City of North Tonawanda.

Mr. Drossos will officially begin working in the Mayor's office as of Monday, April 4th.
